PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, all efforts to reduce the toll of accidents on our streets and highways are vitally important; and

WHEREAS, schools throughout the State of South Dakota are now opening for the coming school year and children will be using our streets and highways while going to and from school; and

WHEREAS, extra caution is needed on the part of all motorists when driving in the vicinity of a school or playground area; and

WHEREAS, local police departments, school officials, civic organizations, school bus drivers and safety officials are working diligently in this direction, and

WHEREAS, there is still a great need for stepping up these activities to protect our children;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, NILS A. BOE, GOVERNOR of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of September 7 to 14, 1966, as

and urge all South Dakotans to join together in this state-wide Child Safety effort to reduce death and injury-producing traffic accidents involving the young people of our state.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of South Dakota to be affixed on this 31st day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-six.

Nils A. Boe
